

On Your Mark, Get Set...READ at the Library this Summer!

On Your Mark, Get Set...READ this summer at Wray Public Library's Summer Reading Program! This free library program is open to all young people, ages 3* to 17, with four appropriate age groups. Readers are challenged to read one or more hours per week as their progress is tracked with reading punch cards, all readers are welcome to stop by the library during the program to have a librarian punch their reading card. However, all reading cards must be turned in by July 11!

Reading Cards

Each reading punch card represents a certain number of hours, dependent on the age group the child is in. Upon completion of a card participants will receive a prize. Coins are added to the trunk for each hour read. When the trunk is full of coins, we can have our On Your Mark, Get Set...READ Pool Party. Readers will receive one punch for every hour read (or read to.) To complete your punch card, fill out the reading slip included in your bag, or pick up some slips at the library.

Programs

Throughout the summer each age group will have two special programs, designed just for them. However the first program will be Thursday, June 9 at Kitzmiller Auditorium starting at 9am for ALL age groups. During these events, we may be crawling on the floor or jumping through hoops, you just NEVER know, so we ask that children are dressed appropriately for these programs!

Activity Pages

Come to the library entryway and pick up some activity sheets to complete and return to the library Mondays through Fridays for tickets to add to the On Your Mark, Get Set...READ trunk. Each week features new activity sheets, which include coloring pages, crafts, games, and tons more!

Pool Party

The library's final On Your Mark, Get Set...READ activity will be a pool party on Friday, July 15th. No children under the age of 3 will be allowed to attend the Final Pool Party!

To be eligible for the pool party, you must have completed at least one reading punch card.
